

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS28550 / H0193

This legislation allows a lien for child support delinquency to attach to certain properties of self employed obligors. This legislation also helps to establish provisions when calculating child support for self employed obligors.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no expected fiscal impact to the General Fund, nor to any other state or local budgets or agencies. This legislation does not change current or established processes but simply improves what's being processed with special regard to self employed obligors. This legislation has the potential to limit unnecessary civil litigation and use of valuable court time and resources in addition to limiting the unnecessary use of valuable State time and resources.
